UNITED STATES MEDALS, COLONIALS, ETC.

- 20 289 Washington. Bust; rev., Boston captured, 1776. Cuivre on edge. Very fine, nick in field. 42.

The French Mint is the only mint which protects innocent collectors from the wiles of unscrupulous dealers, by causing the name of the metal in which struck to be stamped on the edge of all restrikes. United States mint medals, Papal, Russian, German and other medals are constantly restruck and sold as supposed original without a possibility on the part of the buyer of distinguishing the restrike from the genuine. In all my catalogues, I have constantly dwelt on this important feature, unfortunately generally ignored by others.
